FOSS Day 2015
(Free/Open Source Software Day 2015. 14-10-2015)
organized by
Linux User Group of VIT Chennai Campus, SCSE in association with VITACM SC and
Spoken Tutorial Team of IIT Bombay

Dear Students

Greetings from Linux User Group of VIT Chennai Campus. Software Freedom Day(SFD) is an event which is celebrated all over the world on third Saturday of September every year since 2004. SFD is celebrated in India by 32 organizations, in TamilNadu by 22 organizations and in Chennai by 4 organizations including VIT CC. http://softwarefreedomday.org/
We at VIT are celebrating SFD in the name FOSS day 2015 (Free/Open Source Software day 2015) on October 14th 2015. We welcome all the students for contribution towards the following events

Demonstration Stalls

Two modes of demonstrations are possible

- Student could take up any FOSS tool mentioned in the following zones and demonstrate it. New software / tools are also welcome.
- Student could demonstrate any project done using FOSS
  (The project demonstration would be considered as equivalent to one PBL review, if your project is selected for final demonstration)
